

freshen up

what you know about COVID-19 vaccines

Did you know?

All COVID-19 vaccines used in Canada send info to your immune cells about the COVID-19 spike protein.

The spike protein is the most notable feature of that virus, so its easy for your immune system to know exactly what germ to attack!

To read more about these, visit: www.slnha.com/covid/

Sioux Lookout
First Nations
Health Authority