

Sioux Lookout
First Nations
Health Authority

Developmental Services Dietitian Services

The registered dietitians at Developmental Services are healthcare professionals here to promote positive relationships to food with children, youth, and families and to support all ways of eating.

Sioux Lookout
First Nations
Health Authority

Dietitian Services

WHO: Children and youth at all stages of their development.

WHAT: Our dietitians can provide support related to food and nutrition based on a child's unique needs. They can provide assessments, guidance, education, and recommendations.

WHERE: At home, school, in the community, virtually, or where best meets the needs of the child and family.

HOW: One on one appointments, community events, food and nutrition workshops, cooking and food sensory programs and more.

For more information please contact:

(807) 737-4797

Toll Free: 1-855-885-8824

dsreception@slfnha.com

42 King Street, Sioux Lookout

Sioux Lookout
First Nations
Health Authority

www.slfnha.com